

Timothy Breier, Partner, Baker & McKenzie

Timothy Breier is a US-qualified partner in Baker McKenzie's Dispute Resolution Practice Group. He has worked closely on a multitude of projects and cases for international clientele primarily involving compliance and anti-corruption investigations, international arbitration, construction matters, restructuring, contractual disputes and risk management. Having practiced as a consultant in Thailand for over fifteen years, Timothy is in the unique position to offer international clientele valuable insight with respect to the application of foreign and local laws. He is an effective negotiator, tactician, and liaison, often acting as a bridge between international and domestic concerns involving a broad range of legal issues.

Timothy obtained his undergraduate degree from Texas Christian University in 1991 and his JD from the University of Missouri in 1996, and was admitted to the US Federal Bar in 1997. Before moving to Thailand, Timothy worked as a prosecutor and defense attorney in the United States. He has been recognized by Legal 500 Asia Pacific and Chambers Asia Pacific for his work on international arbitration, cross-border matters and dispute resolution.
